SLASHED HANDS TO GET MONEY

A rather sensational robbery and assault took place Thursday night near the Allegheny county approach to the new Monongahela river bridge, in which the victim, John Sodusky was badly cut up.

Vincent Fragilla, an Italian had been released Wednesday morning from the Washington jail where he had been confined on a robbery charge. He went to his home at Monongahela and on Thurdsay night he held up John Sodusky who was on his way home, about 100 yards from the bridge approach Sodusky had $30.00 on his person, but not all in the same pocket, it seems. Fragilla knocked the man down and in rifling his pockets procured a $10.00 bill, missing $20.00 which was in another pocket. Sodusky quietly slipping his hand into the pocket got hold of the money and gripping it tightly in his hand, thought he's act was unseen by his assailant. But he was detected and Fragilla made a desperate effort to wrench the money away, and failing drew a razor and slashed the backs of the man's hands in a horrible manner. Still he could not get it and by repeated calls, two men were at last attacted and went to Sodusky's relief.

Fragilla was arrested by Chief of Police Chester and locked up to await the arrival of the Pittsburgh officers, as the crime was committed in Allegheny county. Last night the prisoner's actions becoming suspecious the turnkey went to his cell to investigate and found it empty. He was traced to the engine room and captured after a desperate struggle and several shots being fired. Frigilla had taken a scantling from about his cot, pried the bars open above the cell door, then pried open a door leading into the engine room. After being re-arrested he was handcuffed to the bars of the cell, where he was held, awaiting the arrival of the Pittsburgh officers.

TO TRY TO SETTLE THE BRIDGE QUESTION

On account of an appeal taken some time ago from the action of the Fayette county viewers in the case of the Belle Vernon bridge, witnesses are being subpoenaed for a hearing April 22 at Butler. Conferences have been held between Fayette and Washington county attorneys and everything is being arranged to try to get an amicable settlement at a hearing in a disinterested county. The bridge company's price was first $80,000. The viewers thought $50,000 would be about the right price, but the company demurred stoutly, agreeing however, to come down $10,000 in their figures and call it sold at $70,000. The viewers stood firm and thus the case comes up April 22 at Butler, in Butler county.

THE PERFORMING SEALS AT OLYMPIC ARE WONDERS

An excellent vaudeville bill of four acts is being shown today at the Olympic theatre. Two large houses greeted the initial performance of this week's bill and every act was received with unstinted applause. Walker and West presented a neat singing and rapid fire talking act. Herbert Camp, the violinist was fine and it is seldom that one has an opportunity to hear one as talented as Mr. Camp. Ruth Wright with an excellent contralto voice sings some of the late airs in a pleasing manner. She also wears costumes that are very becoming. The bill closes with Captain Pickard and his trained seals and to say that this act is alone worth the price of admission is putting it rather mild as the seals are without doubt the best troop of performing animals that have ever appeared here. Moving pictures open and close the bill. A matinee will be given today.

A most cordial invitation is extended to every one to be present as the remarkable work of these little ones will be something to be appreciated and remembered.

BOXING CONTEST TO HAVE GOOD BOUTS

A great deal of interests is beginning to manifest itself among the sport loving fans over the approaching boxing bout which is to be given in the opera house on Monday April 15. The affair promises to be one of the most successful events of it's kind ever pulled off in this locality and large delegations are expected there from many of the surrounding towns.

"Swats" Adamson of Brownsville will fight with "Red" Robinson of Pittsburgh, who is one of the classiest mitt artists in his class in the Smoky City. Eddie Wimle is booked up with "Young" Ketchell of Fayette City and several local lads are expected to put on the gloves with a couple of Pittsburgh lads in the bantam weight class. All in all the event promises to be a big one and an immense turnout is expected.

M. E. Ladies Do Good Work

The ladies of the Methodist church held their regular meeting on Thursday evening which proved unusually interesting as well as profitable, as all had for some time back been working, each to earn a dollar for church work. All had worked faithfully and well it seems, and as the role was called each turned in her, dollar and in a neat little speech told just how it had been earned. A most gratifying amount was thus raised and the affair proved to be one among the most interesting held in a long while. A lunch was served and a delightful social hour enjoyed by all present.

The Personal Workers League will meet at 3 p m. tomorrow Sunday in the Baptist church. Everybody welcome.

A MURDER AT WEBSTER

Another murder goes down on Westmoreland county's record. Louis White, a quiet and respected young miner aged 24 years, being shot to death about 11 o'clock last night at Webster by John Jones of Donora.

Jones, it seems, had taken a few drinks during the evening and after becoming pretty well under the influence thereof he meandered down to White's boarding place on the State Road at the lower end of town, stopping nearby became noisy; so much in fact, that White and the other inmates became annoyed he went out and remonstrated with Jones, asking him to go away peaceably and keep quiet. The man became more and more boisterous and abusive and at last it was necessary for White to insist on his moving on. This seemed to rile him considerably, as he seemed to think he had right's which everybody was bound to respect. White ordered Jones away and the latter pulling out a revolver shot him down, the ball entering a vital part of the body. The young man was taken into his boarding house and died within an hour, later being taken to Rabe's morgue, Donora to be prepared for burial. White's home was at Coal Bluff, and the funeral will occur Sunday from his late home. The murderer was captured and locked up.

Col. Denckson Able to be Out

Col. C. M. Derickson was out yesterday, walking about down street as usual, only taking it slow and easy, so to speak. It will be remembered that the Colonel fell on his way home from a meeting at the Presbyterian church Wednesday, having been overcome by heart weakness. He says he is much improved, but feels pretty weak, and aims to take his time in perambulating about among his friends. We are heartily glad to see him able to be about.

A committee meeting is to be held at the Christian church in Charleroi Monday afternoon and evening to further arrangements for the Sunday School convention to be held there soon. ROUGH HOUSE OUT NEAR PRICEDALE

There was considerable excitement at Belle Vernon at 1 o'clock p. m. today about police circles. A report came in from Arnold City of a "rough house" among a gang of foreign miners, in which a running fight was indulged in and considerable excitement caused. The Belle Vernon chief of Police had started a detachment of aids out to look it up. It is not learned at this time whether any were killed or not, but it is though quite a number will be brought into headquarters by this evening

It will be remembered that Dr. Armstrong delivered a series of lectures during the winter in Monessen high school auditorium before the faculty, students and citizens, and high qualities as a gentleman and great ability along educational lines. Monessen folk congratulate him on his success.

Editor Independent:

I noticed an exchange in your paper last night headed; ISN T IT FUNNY? ' For lack of prisoners the Greene County jail at Waynesburg has been standing wide open for sometime. That is, the doors are unlocked and visitors may go in and inspect all departments at any time." The writer would like to state some more facts for the benefit of those who read: For the jail at Waynesburg to be uncenanted is not an uncommon thing, there have been terms of court when there were no criminal cases to be tried, it is not uncommon for a Justice of the Peace to serve his term of office without issuing a warrant, many constables do not make an arrest in a year, lawsuits the exception rather than the rule; Waynesburg is the only town having a regular police force and that numbers two men (a pretty good record for a town of 4,000 population?) Now Mr. Editor, IT ISN'T FUNNY, there is a good hard-headed reason for it all. Greene County has not had a retail liquor license for 35 years and the brewery and distilleries have been closed by remonstrance, the clubs and speakeasies find the climate unhealthy, druggists sell drugs or are in danger of acting as janitor at the county jail, with board and room with the doors locked, plus costs and liberal fine. You will see less drunkenness in a year in the whole county than you can see in our town in a month.

News Notes of Society

The Misses Elsie and Beatrice Melich antertained the young people of the Methodist church at a peanut party last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Duvall on McKee avenue. The decorations and refreshments were suggestive of Eastertime and the number proved most enjoyable to all. There was quite a large attendance and the guests were most delightfully entertained by the Misses Melich who are decidedly at home as social entertainers. Many and novel were the forms of amusement as the title of the event would naturally suggest, and much enginuity and tact were evidenced in the numerous and novel ideas, which made up an evening of wholesome and innocent pastime, wholly satisfying to all. The luncheon was most pleasing and all were elated over this decidedly joyous Easter event.

The lookout committee of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church entertained at a "sewing" last night at the home of Miss Elsie Mitchell on McKee avenue. There were about twenty young ladies present and the hours were passed pleasantly and profitably, as it is generally known that this set of girls are very industrious at a gathering of this kind. Diversions of a pleasing nature were injected into the program and a pleasing little luncheon served to cheer the sewers very materially after their arduous and strenuous evenng's work. Of course all went home happy and light hearted.

BOB SHIBLER BUYS A "NEW" AUTO

Robert Shibler is the proud owner of an automobile. It isn't exactly a new automobile, but just as good as new as long as it keeps going.

The car was purchased at Fayette City and is the one formerly owned by Dr. Sloterbeck. Robert went to Fayette City Thursday to bring the car home and he left that town at 3 o'clock and arrived in Monessen at 10 o'clock, so it is plain to be seen that the car has some racing qualities. Most of the way the machine came on its own power but from Pricedale it was brought in on dray power. The big team of A. Marple was brought into service. Robert is very proud of his new possession and he says when the roads get good he will "go some."

See Great Electrical Display

Through the combined efforts of the various Electric jobbers and manufacturers in Pittsburgh and vicinity and The West Penn Electric Company, a big free Electric show will be given at the Charleroi Basket Ball Hall beginning Monday, April 8th, and running the entire week. This show has been given in both Connellsville and Greensburg and attracted thousands of people. This demonstration will give to the people of Monessen and vicinity a chance to see electrical appliances practically demonstrated at absolutely no cost to the people. The Hall will be a maze of Electric lights as well as the streets leading to it. This requires an immense amount of work and a large force are now working on the construction of booths equipment etc.

As a token of regard and appreciation of services, the members of the Washington Avenue Boy's Brigade of Charleroi surprised their commander, O. M. Wise, at his home on Wednesday evening and presented him a handsome gold watch. Mr. Wise starts in a few days for an extended Western trip.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

THE TAYLOR TEACHING
BROOKLYN TABERNACLE
BIBLE STUDIES

JESUS' SOUL RESURRECTED.

1 Corinthians xv, 1-11—April 7.

Text: "This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we are all witnesses."—Acts ii, 32.

TODAY, appropriate to the Easter season, we are to consider our Lord's resurrection. At the very outset we are confronted with certain errors which have gradually crystallized around the central truths of God's Word. One of these errors is the supposition that the resurrection of the dead, which the Scriptures hold forth as the hope of the Church and of the world, is to be a resurrection of the bodies which go down into death.

This mistake has given ground for infidelity to sneer at this precious doctrine of the Bible.

"He is risen."

We are asked, How could the dust which once constituted the bodies of thousands of millions of humanity ever be re-collected and rearranged so that we could say that those bodies were resurrected? The infidel urges that many of humanity have been eaten by fishes and animals, and many other corpses have been absorbed by vegetation, which in turn has been eaten time and again by man and beast, entering into the many organisms. The proposition is manifestly unanswerable, yet it does not refute the Bible teaching of the resurrection, but merely our creedal misapprehensions of the Bible teaching. What the Bible does teach is that the real man is the soul, the being, and that he persists while gradually his body keeps changing—sloughing off. Scientists estimate that the human body undergoes a complete change every seven years. According to the Bible the process of rejuvenation would have continued everlastingly had man continued by obedience in Divine favor and in enjoyment of the everlasting life promised. It was sin that brought the death penalty—the death of the soul. It was Adam's soul that sinned, it was Adam's soul that died—"In the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die." "The soul that sinneth it shall die."

Christ's Death and Resurrection Makes Future Life Possible.

The result of this Divine sentence upon man would have been extinction—he would have been on the same plane as the brute without any hope for eternal life, had not God in great mercy provided a redemption—that "Jesus Christ by the grace of God should taste death for every man." The death which Jesus experienced was exactly the same kind as the one which destroyed Adam—the soul of Jesus died as the ransom-price for the soul of Adam (including Adam's posterity). Thus we read of Jesus: "He poured out His soul unto death; He made His soul an offering for sin."

It is by virtue of this corresponding price which Jesus paid that ultimately Adam and all of his posterity, every soul of man, will be granted a release from the death penalty—a resurrection from the dead—not of the dead bodies, but of the dead souls. In the resurrection God will give to each soul a body as it has pleased Him.—I Corinthians xv, 38.

The few during this Age who have become the followers of Jesus, begotten of the Holy Spirit, will be granted spirit bodies like to the Savior's. The remainder of mankind, not having been begotten of the Holy Spirit, will in the resurrection be granted human bodies, the same as they previously had; and their raising up will bring them eventually to all the perfection of the first Adam, unless they refuse the grace of God, in which event they will die the Second Death, from which there is to be no resurrection.

Jesus' Soul Resurrected.

St. Peter, on the Day of Pentecost, laid stress upon the fact of Christ's resurrection, and he reminds us that this was foretold. The Prophet David declared, "Thou wilt not leave My soul in sheol, nor suffer Thine Holy One to see corruption"—Acts ii, 27.

The walk to Emmaus.

St. Peter's quotation of this, in the Greek, substitutes the word hades for sheol, showing that the words were a prophecy of the resurrection of Jesus—that His soul, poured out in death as the redemption price for Adam's soul and for the race, was not left in death, in sheol, in hades, but was raised from the dead.

St. Paul tells us that "He was put to death in flesh, but quickened in spirit." He declared that Jesus, in His resurrection, was exalted to a higher than human nature—"far above angels and principalities and powers"—the divine nature.

As angels could materialize and appear in the flesh and disappear, and had done so in the past, so did Jesus. In order that His disciples might not misunderstand He appeared in different forms—on two of the occasions, in forms representing the Crucified One. On the other six occasions, in various forms, as the gardener, the sojourner, etc.

The Roller Skating Nuisance

Now that bright, nice warm spring days are about to be ours, we are reminded of one nuisance peculiar to this particular season—that of roller skating on the sidewalks by boys and girls—which should be abated in some way. We would not deprive boys and girls of any one of their vested rights, but we fail to see where the using of town or city sidewalks for a skating park comes within the rightful category of sports. We have heard right in our town of Monessen, many complaints of what has grown to proportions of a nuisance and it would seem right and proper for our city officials to step into the breech and put a ban on this needless and nuisanceous pastime, more particularly on main thoroughfares. Not long since attention was attracted to an instance where a gentleman in stepping from the doorway of a business place and not thinking of danger was struck by a boy going down a grade on roller skates, knocked down, lighting almost wholly on the back of his head, and being rendered insensible for a time. It was necessary to call a doctor to resuscitate him and dress an ugly scalp wound. Another case comes to mind; some girls skating quite rapidly down Schoonmaker avenue, two of them arm in arm, ran into a lady going in the opposite direction carrying an armfull of groceries. She was thrown to the pavement and her purchases lost. Boys and girls glide among crowds to the peril of pedestrians and to the manifest annoyance of every person having occasion to pass through the business portion. Children are knocked down, women rudely jarred and knocks given to the sore corns of innumerable passersby, and the rude and thoughtless skaters seem to have no thought whatever of the rights, privileges or safety of others. Roller skating is an invigorating pastime, but we have many well paved streets where it may be indulged to the satisfaction of all, just as is hoop rolling, tag, high spy and the like, and there is no reasonable defense for the preemption of our sidewalks to the danger and annoyance of shoppers and the general populace.

The Husband's Hindrances

It is cruel to judge a person harsnly unless a person knows all the facts in the case. We may wonder why our neighbor across the way is so extravagant and lives up to every cent he makes. His salary is sufficient, probably, to buy a home and pay for it, were all things within the household on an equality. Maybe the wife is one of the nagging kind and craves the social whirl or the luxury of all the latest styles in preference to the comforts of a modest home. She probably would rather indulge in pastime pleasures that take all the spare cash that should be saved to pay for a home to shelter the family when the best days are spent Pastime pleasures have nothing of a permanent nature and sweil plumes and stylish clothes soon fade and there is nothing left. But in some cases it is the nagging wife that causes the trouble. She pleads and begs for things that the husband cannot afford until in order to keep peace he yields. Peace is a great thing to have in the home.

Peace at home! He has paid a high price for it, but did he get it? Well hardly! He is one of those kind of men who would imagine himself a brute to refuse the wife of his bosom anything which she craved. He always believed that "when a woman will, she will, you may depend upon it, and when she won't she won't, so there's an end on't" The husband who is rushed into extravagences for peace at home should realize that it is time to insist firmly that he is head of the house, being the support of it and wage earner. That it is imperative for them to come to an amicable agreement in regard to the family outlay. The man who gives in and buys what he cannot afford for the sake of peace will realize that his peace has grown wings and suddenly has taken flight.

WE MUST REBUKE THE TARIFF TINKERS

All that is wrong with business is that it is afraid to venture on new enterprises as long as there is danger of the protective barrier of the Tariff being broken down.

You men in business, in offices, following trades and the professions in the prosperous towns surrounding the great Metropolitan District of Pittsburgh know this. You know that the nation-wide power of this district, of which you are a part and to which you have contributed your share of brains and enterprise, was acquired under the beneficent protection of the Tariff. You know that the tariff has safeguarded your businesses and enabled you to develop home markets for your products and your work.

Don't Be Led Astray

In the face of this knowledge are you going to be led astray by Strange Gods of Government and False Idols of Politics, or are you going to stand fast by the principles which have helped you and your family to get where you are?

Free-Trade spells Industrial, Commercial and Agricultural Disaster.

Remember the Wilson Bill!

A Protective Tariff means Peace and Plenty.

It's up to you to choose.

But in choosing keep your mind clear and your hand steady. Don't be deceived by fancy talk about theories of self-government which are so experimental in character as to constitute a menace to our welfare as individuals and as a nation

Let Us Have Peace

For some years the country has struggled through a tariff tinkering period. Just now, when, under the wise leadership of our President we are emerging from this spell of restless uncertainty and getting our feet in the ways of Peace and Progress, does it seem right to you that we should again let the nation be turned Topsy-Turvy to find out if certain wistful hopes may be realized, if certain personal ambitions may be gratified and useless revenges be wreaked?

Let your answer ring clear at the Primaries, April 13th.

Join in the state-wide movement for the re-election of President Taft and the endorsement of the Republican Party and help Pennsylvania show the rest of the states she is the Old Reliable as of yore.

Join the Big Taft Club

The Taft Club of Pittsburgh a powerful organization of several thousand men of all occupations, urges you to go into your primaries next Saturday and for your own good and the material welfare of your family, your community and your nation, vote for those delegates from your congressional district to the National Republican Convention and from your legislative district to the State Convention, who are pledged to the support of President Taft
